From the Principal's Office

Dear Saint Saviour Community,

I am filled with gratitude as I share some exciting news with all of you. As many of you know, we recently completed the rigorous and highly esteemed Middle States Evaluation. After three days of in-depth review and reflection, I am thrilled to announce that we have been awarded Middle States Accreditation overwhelmingly. For those who may be unfamiliar with Middle States, it is an accreditation body that evaluates schools on a wide range of criteria, from academic standards to institutional governance. This status is a prestigious recognition of excellence in education, and we are deeply proud of this achievement.

The Middle States team spent three days closely examining every aspect of what makes Saint Saviour the vibrant community it is. They evaluated everything from our custodial services to our cafeteria, and they took the time to meet with a wide range of stakeholders—our teachers, staff, parents, alumnae, and students. Each of you is an essential part of what makes Saint Saviour unique, and I want to acknowledge you as a key member of this incredible community. You, too, are a stakeholder in the mission of this school.

The evaluators were deeply impressed by the way we live our mission every single day here at Saint Saviour. They praised our unwavering commitment to the values and traditions that have been the foundation of this school for generations. In a world where so much of the past seems to be forgotten, our legacy—embodied in our students, our teachers, and our traditions—remains alive and strong. This is something truly special, and it's something we should all be very proud of.

I must also acknowledge that the Middle States process was a significant investment of time and resources. It was costly, but it was worth it. The evaluation provided us with the opportunity to reflect, to assess, and to ensure that we are continually striving to provide a high-quality Catholic education while remaining responsive to the needs of today's students and their families. The team commended us for our continued stewardship of the Saint Saviour Mission and for offering a program that honors both our rich legacy and our commitment to the future.

In the spring, we will receive the final report from the Middle States team, and I am eager to share it with all of you. It will highlight both our strengths and areas for growth, but I can already tell you that we are being recognized for our excellence in Catholic education and our commitment to our community.

Finally, I want to take this opportunity to thank you for your ongoing investment in our school. Your support—whether it's through your time, your resources, or your encouragement—makes all the difference. We could not do what we do without you, and I am deeply grateful for your continued commitment to Saint Saviour High School.

As we move forward together, I ask for your continued support in our Annual Appeal. Your generosity ensures that we can continue to provide a strong, values-based education to future generations of young women. Together, we will continue to build on our legacy and keep the mission of Saint Saviour alive and thriving.

With heartfelt thanks,

Carolann Timpone
Principal, Saint Saviour High School

From the Advisory Board

December 2024

Dear Alumnae,

Another year has passed very swiftly and St. Saviour is strong and vibrant. The students are a very unique and impressive group of young women. They shine academically as is shown by the results of their testing and college acceptances. Recently they performed “Into the Woods”, a professional performance second to none. You can be proud of their accomplishments.

The school has just completed the Middle States evaluation. The administration and faculty worked diligently preparing all of the required data. The 3 day visit and evaluation spoke highly of the academic program as well as the high quality of the administration and faculty.

As always, we are very grateful for your support. You afford the administration the opportunity to enhance the programs for the students and keep up the maintenance of the building. We cannot thank you enough. Please know how very grateful we are for all that you do.

Sincerely,

Geri Martinez '64
St. Saviour Advisory Board
Chairperson

The Margaret Mary Wolfe '37 Society

Named in honor of Saint Saviour High School's largest estate donation, the Margaret Mary Wolfe '37 Society celebrates and recognizes Saint Saviour High School's donors who have expressed their long term commitment by including Saint Saviour High School in their will.

Your membership involves no dues, obligations, or solicitations, but it does allow us to thank you and recognize you for the plans you have made, and it may inspire generosity in others.

The most important benefit you will receive from joining the Margaret Mary Wolfe '37 Society is the happiness resulting from making a long-lasting gift towards the success of Saint Saviour High School. Once you complete your estate plans, please let us know so we can include you in this club. Please contact the Advancement Office at 718-768-4406.
